Course ID: SPAN 3010. 3 hours.

Course Title: Spanish Conversation and Composition

Course Description: Primary emphasis is divided between conversation and composition skills. The two phases of the course are correlated to include the skills of reading and listening comprehension. Given in Spanish. Not open to native speakers.

Athena Title: Spanish Convers and Compos

Duplicate Credit: Not open to students with credit in SPAN 3010H, SPAN 3011

Prerequisite: SPAN 2002 or SPAN 2002E or SPAN 2120H or permission of department

Semester Course Offered: Offered fall and spring semester every year.

Grading System: A-F (Traditional)

Course Objectives: Emphasis will be placed on a wide variety of interactive activities between the instructor and students and between the students and their peers. In their readings, oral and written assignments, and exams, students will be expected to develop their vocabulary and syntax, as well as their reading, writing and oral skills with a view to improving their ability to communicate fluently and coherently in the target language.

Topical Outline:
- Language-specific activities
- Communication strategies
- Listening comprehension
- Individual and group discussion activities (films, short stories, newspaper and magazine articles, etc.).